A screenshot of a web browser displaying the Microsoft website for downloading Windows 10. The browser's address bar shows the URL "https://www.microsoft.com/en-in/software-download/windows10". The page features a blue header with the Microsoft logo and navigation links for "Software Download", "Office", "Windows", "Windows Insider Preview", and "FAQ". The main content area has a blue banner that says "Download Windows 10". Below this, there is a section titled "Windows 10 October 2018 Update now available" with a sub-header "The Update Assistant can help you update to the latest version of Windows 10. To get started, click Update now." and a blue button labeled "Update now". A "Privacy" link is visible below the button. The next section is titled "Create Windows 10 installation media" with a sub-header "To get started, you will first need to have a licence to install Windows 10. You can then download and run the media creation tool. For more information on how to use the tool, see the instructions below." and a blue button labeled "Download tool now". Another "Privacy" link is present below this button. On the right side of the page, there is an image of a laptop displaying the Windows 10 desktop environment.
